

APPLIED SOCIAL SCIENCE Oral Patient Presentation – Section A: Interview

Student Names:	Hospital:
	Date:
Assessment outcomes: The student must:
1. Demonstrate effective communication and establishes therapeutic relationships.
2. Demonstrate the use of cognitive, attitudinal and psychomotor skills while performing a Culturally Congruent Oral Patient Presentation.
3. Identify psychosocial needs of patients and be able to apply appropriate interventions to meet those needs incorporate those aspects into the nursing care plan.

Allocate a half mark per bullet as per the guide below

SECTION A: Patient interview – Did the student				0	0.5	1	1.5	2	Mark
1.1	Introduce assessor to the patient								/0.5
1.2	Identify patient and confirm permission to proceed with assessment								/0.5
1.3	Discuss health and history aspects related to:
	• self-concept	• communication	• and culture						/1.5
1.4	Display appropriate use of verbal communication skills according to the patient needs/culture:
	• tone of voice –not loud but audible	• correct use of language	• patients mother tongue if possible / interpreter						/1.5
1.5	Demonstrate appropriate use of non-verbal communication skills, displaying a caring and compassionate attitude according to the patients' needs/culture:
	• touch	• eye contact	• body language						/1.5
1.6	Evaluate patient related to self-concept aspects:
	• Posture	• Overly apologetic	• Hesitant in asking questions or speaking up in general						/2
	• Remarks such as "I am so stupid"								/0.5
1.7	Evaluate patient for specific needs regarding communication:
	• Mother tongue	• Developmental level	• Possible barriers to communication						/1.5
1.8	Obtain information from patient regarding cultural related aspects:
	• Cultural group	• Language	• Family structure						/2
	• Religious practices/believes regarding current illness	• Living condition/ Employment and financial aspects	• Use of medication						/1.5

Comments:	Total:
	/13
Clinical Training Specialist Signature: _____	